Four Arrested as Holdup Men

Tin Plate Organizers Arrested

MAINE ELECTION VERITABLE REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE

State Police Arrest Bandits Near Ligonier

Four men, two of, them armed and who, it is believed, might know something about the hold-up of Wilson McAuley, Sharpsburg bank messenger at Sixty-second and Butler streets yesterday morning, were taken after a desperate fight by the Pennsylvania state police, three miles east of Ligonier, on the Lincoln highway at 4 o'clock yesteray afternoon. They are being held for further investigation in the constabulary barracks at Greensburg. McAuley, the bank messenger, was on his way to Greensburg late last evening to see whether he could identify the men as those who snatched from him a satchel containing $8,200 in cash and $28.000 in bankers' checks.

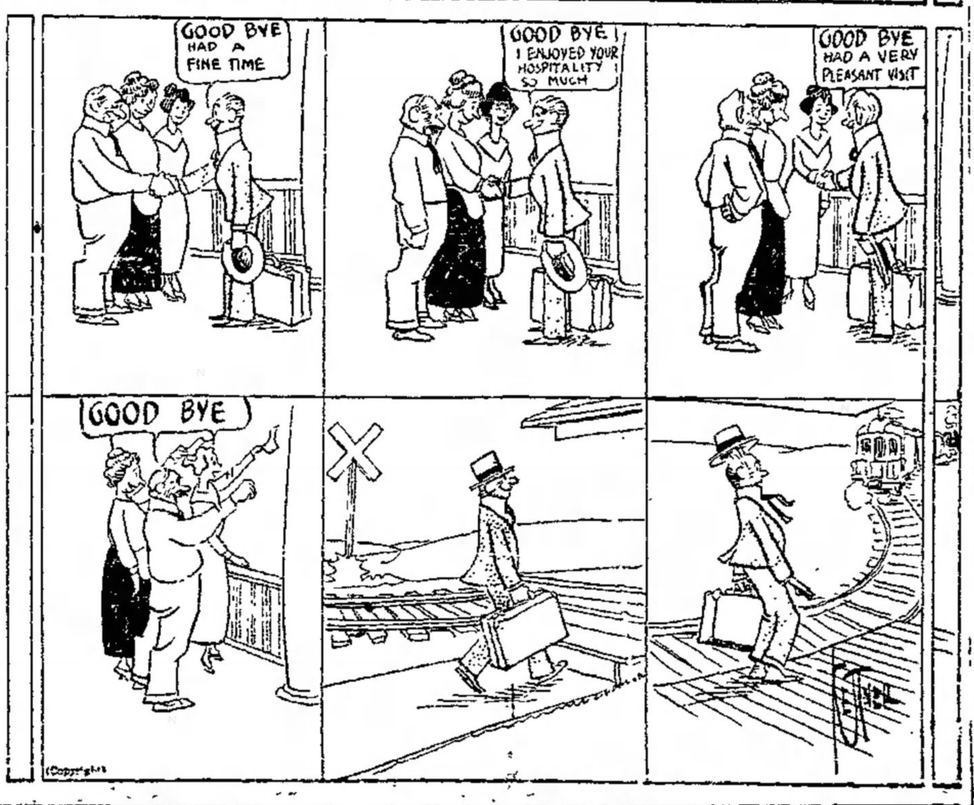
The hold-up occurred at 10 o'clock. Less than an hour later the state police were galloping over the country to guard all roads. They kept a close vigil for the suspects who, they learned, were driving in a stolen automobile. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a big touring car, bearing a Michigan and a Pennsylvania license, pulled up in front of the Laughlinville garage near Ligonier. It had a flat tire and the four men in the car excitedly explained that they wanted a new tire without delay. The new tire was put on the car and while a clerk was making out the bill, the men tried to escape without paying, it is alleged.

The watchman of the garage jumped on the running board of the machine. The men in the car beat him severely and knocked him to the ground. The state police, watching the road for the bank-messenger hold up men, saw the rapidly traveling car coming down the highway. With drawn guns they ordered the driver to pull up. The quartet of passengers resisted arrest and fought desperately but the police overpowered them. The machine they were riding in had been stolen, according to the police, the state license which it bore indicating that it was the property of a Beaver Falls man.

The prisoners refused to tell anything about themselves at first, but finally gave their names and said they came from Detroit. They refused to explain their flight in the automobile from Pittsburgh nor would they say why they were armed.

Late last night the state troopers at Greensburg gave out the names of the prisoners as Ivan Bascar, Edward Brown, Samuel Miskoe and Ralph Raken, all claiming to be residents of Detroit. They denied knowledge of the holdup of the bank messenger and said they had just got into town from Detroit when arrested. When the holdup occurred, McAuley was on his way with the money from the Citizens' Deposit & Trust company in Sharpsburg to a Pittsburgh bank.

The End of a Perfect Day



Promoters of Tin Plate Mill Under Arrest

Curtis E. Walters, of the Brownsville road, Carrick, was held for court in $2,000 bail by United States Commissioner Roger Knox yesterday afternoon on a charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud. Walters was arrested two months ago by city detectives in connection with an alleged $600,000 stock fraud. He was later turned over to Federal authorities.

It is said that Walters, as an officer of the Pittsburgh Tin Plate and Steel company, sent through the mails circulars in a campaign to sell stock of the company. Six hundred thousand dollars, it is alleged, was obtained from persons in this manner.

These circulars, it is asserted, gave the impression that the Pittsburgh Tin Plate and Steel company was a concern of financial strength. They stated, also, Federal authorities say, that the money raised in the campaign of stock selling was to be used only in increasing the equipment and the production of the company.

But instead of using the money in this manner, it is said, the officers of the company diverted it to their own use under the guise of using it for their salaries and other expenses.

It is said that the capitalization of the Pittsburgh Tin Plate and Steel company was set at $3,000,000 half of it in preferred stock and the other half in common stock. The company, it is aid, with each purchase of preferred stock, gave a 50 per cent bonus in common stock.

The company promised, it is said, dividends to be paid the first of the year which it did not pay. The company was organized in July, 1919. Its main plant was at Marietta, O.

Larkin C. Taylor and John W White will be arraigned in connection with the same case, before the United States commissioner at Marietta, Ohio, today, it is said.

Cummings Will Not Be a Candidate

(By United Press)

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 14—Homer S. Cummings, former Democratic national chairman, announced here today that he will not be a candidate for United States Senator to oppose Senator Frank B. Brandigee, Republican nominee.

"I am not a candidate for the nomination for United States Senator," said Cummings today. "It is not only a question of my personal interests and professional engagements preventing, but I am also advised from scources that I cannot ignore that my health will not permit me to go through a strenuous campaign.

"I am very grateful to all the good friends who have suggested that I be nominated, but there are plenty of other men in the party who can carry the standard with honor and success.

Another Reduction

A reduction in the price of refined sugar to the jobber from 17 to 15 cents a pound was announced by the California-Hawaiian and Western sugar refining companies in San Francisco. An increase in raw imports was given as the direct reason for the reduction here. Hawaiian shipments being especially heavy.

Examination Proved Dog Had Rabies

The four persinos bitten by the mad dog Sunday night were given treatment yesterday to ward off hydrophobia, following the announcement that after an examination of the head of the dog it was found to be suffering in the worst stages of rabies. The animal has been locked up for over three years and two weeks ago was from all indications free from any disease, and was a great favorite of the children of the neighborhood who played with the animal. It is thought that the confinement of the animal during mating season was responsible for its going mad and running wild, creating a reign of terror in the neighborhood. The four persons bitten by the animal are at their homes, but are under close observation, and it is thought that with the prompt treatment they will not suffer serious injury.

Court of Claims

(By United Press)

Philadelphia, Sept. 14—A court of claims for persons unable to stand the expense of legal procedure will be instituted here this week. The first session will be held on Thursday, September 23rd. The object is to afford immediate, through justice administered by capable judges.

The court, which is a branch of the municipal bench, is a commission body empowered to render decisions after a fair hearing granted to all parties concerned. It is less formal than the usual municipal court and in practice resembles what is made "out of court."

History For Schools

The illustrated story of the Twenty-eighth division in France is being presented to the school teachers of the state by a joint plan of the State Adjutant General's and Public Instruction departments, Chaplain C. D. Foerster being in charge.

The idea of presenting the views and story of the division to the teachers is to give them first hand information so that they can tell the public about Pennsylvania soldiers. Efforts are being made to obtain the pictures of other organizations made up of Pennsylvanians.

R. E. Brown, local jeweler, left this morning on a hunting trip to [illegible].

BIGGEST REPUBLICAN VICTORY SINCE 1896 WHEN STATE GAVE PARTY 48,000

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 14—The sweeping Republican victory in the Maine state election was as astounding to Republicans national leaders as it was to the Democrats today.

That the state should go Republican by a majority of approximately 20,000 over the former high water mark in 1896 of 48,000 was unexpected even by the optimistic party leaders, either state or national. The most extravagant pre-election forecasts made by Republican state leaders did not go over 40,000, while Chairman Hays, of the Republican national committee, had said he would feel very well satisfied if the majority should be merely double that in the state election of four years ago, which was 13,000.

Although Democratic national leaders had entertained no hope of Democratic success in Maine, they were not looking for a Republican majority of more than 25,000. In all the circumstances considering the fact that the National committee had not expended any money in the Maine campaign and had contributed only national speakers to the cause, they had expressed the view that anything less than a Republican majority of 25,000 would really be considered a Democratic victory. Chairman White declined early today to make any comment until he had received further information.

Chairman Hays lost no time in putting out a statement in which he attributed the result largely to dissatisfaction with the Wilson administration.

"The result" said Hays, "gives the greatest assurance to all well wishers of good government, regardless of past party affiliations. This overwhelming Republican victory unmistakably evidences the demoralization of the Democratic organization, the repudiation of the administration of their leader, Woodrow Wilson, and the complete consummation of the campaign of Candidate Cox. The women, too, have demonstrated their dependability in this crisis."

Other Republican leaders ascribed the result largely to Governor Cox's alleged failure to "make good" with his charges of a slush fund of $15,000,000 to "buy the presidency." The New York World, the only Democratic morning paper, commenting editorially on the election, under the caption "A bad beating" frankly admits the severity of the blow. "The Democrats have suffered a severe beating," it says. "There is no comfort in the result for them. They went into the contest feebly organized and gather from its conclusion a correspondingly feeble satisfaction. It appears that about half of the potential women vote has been polled which should increase the total vote over 1916 by 50 per cent. Yet the total Democratic vote is running even with or behind that of 1916 when unexpectedly it would be running 50 per cent ahead, as in the case with the Republicans. Either then, the newly enfranchised women have been polling the Republican ticket rather exclusively or there has been a great defect in old time Democratic vote which is not probable.

Carry Out Own Reprisals

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 14—The Sinn Fein government prefers to carry out its own reprisals for the expected death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, on hunger strike in Brixton Prison, rather than entrust them to individuals, it was learned here today.

An order issued by the commander in chief of the Irish republican army states: "To all officers of the army of the republic: You are directed in the event of the death of Lord Mayor of Cork, so far as possible to prevent Irish quals from exacting reprisals, and to oppose organized retaliation."

"The Republican government Great Britain will welcome an uprising as an opportunity to inflict a death blow on the Irish people.

"Be assured the Republican government will carry out just retribution against persons concerned in the murder of Lord Mayor MacSwiney. Witnesses the fate of those concerned in the death of Lord Mayor MacCurtain. Seven were proven guilty in the republic's courts. None is now alive."

The latest bulletin on MacSwiney's condition said it was unchanged. He was described as "very exhausted" but still conscious.

An Irish boy has brought one of the alleged miraculous bleeding statues of the Virgin from Templemore and has asked permission to place it in MacSwiney's room.

The Sinn Feiners hinged today that British officials in Ireland are league with members of the cabinet to break the organization of the parliament representatives.

The Freeman's Journal reports that the wives of the officers and soldiers in Ireland have been ordered to leave immediately. This was interpreted in some quarters as an indication the government for was a serious uprising in the event of MacSwiney's death.

It was learned today that confidential reports from the United States have influenced the decision of the British cabinet not to release the Lord Mayor. These reports said that American sentiment was "torpid" that discussion in the press there was largely on the question of expediency and that no moral was pointed out.

Recent deaths from hunger strikes in American jails have been scarcely mentioned in the press, according to reports. American prison customs were alleged to be more brutal than those in England.

All these factors were said to minimize the effect in the United States of MacSwiney's death.

Plurality 70,000

(By United Press)

Augusta, Maine, Sept. 14—Maine went Republican in the state election yesterday by the greatest plurality in its history. Latest returns show that the Republican plurality will be nearly 70,000 or 1896 the first Bryan year, the Republican majority in Maine was 48,000.

Airplane and Auto Almost Collide

A near collision of an automobile and an airplane occurred yesterday at Masontown when, in a forced landing, due to engine trouble, a plane carrying Harry DePriest, aged 17, and Miss Mary Cottage, aged 16, of Masontown, missed an automobile by inches, crashing into a pole and was wrecked. The plane had risen 100 feet above the field when the engine went dead. The plane shot downward with the aviator attempting to land on the Masontown-Leckrone road. As he was a short distance from the ground, an automobile dashed up the road. By throwing his weight to one side and manipulating a lever, Lieut. Compton, the pilot, avoided striking the automobile. The left wing struck a pole and turned the plane completely around. The two passengers were lifted from the craft uninjured.

Ban on Carnivals

At its regular meeting of council this month, Mount Pleasant adopted a resolution that no carnivals, immoral shows or gambling devices be operated in the borough and that a request be made of the fire department not to allow or lend its name to any carnival to be held within the borough limits. This action was unanimously taken by the council with the assurance from the burgess that he would strictly enforce the provisions of the resolution.

Occupy Arbe

(By United Press)

Rome, September 14—Gabriele D'Annunzio's forces occupied the Islands of Arbe Veglia and Cherso on Saturday, according to a dispatch from Fiume today received by way of Ancona.

Arbe, Veglia and Cherso are large islands south of Fiume, lying between the Istrian Peninsula and Dalmatia. Several large towns are located on them. D'Annunzio may seek to include them in his new republic of "Quarnero."

Issue Manifesto

(By United Press)

Rome, Sept. 14—Evidences of a third International have resulted in a manifesto to Italian laborites, which are among them, it was presented on a recent demonstration and a recent ordinary outbreak, according to the Rome correspondent of the Idea Nazionale.

Following the stoppage of two troop trains in northern Italy by members of the extremists, syndicate a battleship and a destroyer flotilla, carrying landing companies, have arrived at Genoa.

Hope for Settlement of Phone Rates

Monessen and all other towns in the Monongahela valley will anxiously await the result of the proposed settlement of the Bell Telephone rate complaints which will be taken up by the Public Service Commission today. Under the new arrangement Monessen would remain in Class D and consequently would mean the retention of the old rates with the free toll service as usual to surrounding towns. Donora and Monongahela City would be raised from Class E to Class D which would mean an increase in tariff, but at the same time it would give them free calls to towns where they are now paying a five cent toll. The new increase would only be 25 cents a month or $3.00 a year of residence lines.

Under Class D. tariffs which affect Monessen, the yearly business rates are: Single line, $60.00; two party line, $54.00; four party line, $48.00; and multi-party line, $48.00. Residence rates: single line $30.00, two party line $33.00; four party line, $27.00; multi-party line, $27.00. The rates for an extension telephone remain the same, $12.00 a year for business, $9.00 a year for residence.

Over one hundred municipalities were represented in the complaints by five attorneys and should they be successful in their fight against the company over 200,000 subscribers would save approximately $500,000 annually on their telephone bills. Two-party lines and four-party residence lines would also be re-established in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Fatal Train Wreck

As a result of a freight wreck on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad at Beatty, two miles west of Latrobe Sunday night, one man is dead, 28 cars loaded with war harness were wrecked and traffic on the division was tied up for [illegible] hours. The body of Victor E. Potesky, aged 22, of Hahntown, a fireman, was removed from the wreckage yesterday.

Re-Forestration

(By United Press)

Quebec, Que., Sept. 14—The old province of Quebec holds out more hope for the game newspaper in the future than any other spot in the world, it is believed here with the provincial government's program of re-forestration and protection from fire.

The government plans to plant two pine or spruce trees for every tree cut down and keep a present on hydro-airplanes patrolling the vast timber section and is encouraging protection of large private wood. Three million pine and spruce trees were planted this year and seven associations of lumbermen were organized for timber development.

AN EXPERIMENT THAT FAILED

They tried an experiment in syndicalism—which is a polite term for a specialized form of anarchy—at Ellis Island the other day. It didn't work.

For the first time since the beginning of the war sugar for coffee was placed upon the table instead of molasses.. It was put in bowls. The newly arrived immigrants to whom it was served had most of them—not seen sugar for years. They rioted for possession of the sugar, to fill their mouths, their cups and their pockets. They nearly wrecked the dining room. Sugar will be served at Ellis Island in individual containers hereafter, each person's portion strictly rationed.

A few years ago a man wrote a book upon syndicalism in which he declared: "They, (the syndicalists) believe that when all are free to help themselves from the all-suffering products of society they will no more misuse their opportunity than people now misuse streets, roads, bridges, libraries, parks, etc." But the Ellis Island diners upset the sugar bowls and wasted a lot of the sugar in the process.

"Nations are no better than their peoples collectively. They, too, fight over sugar, and coal, and iron, and land, and anything else that is scarce. They fight because they are not organized to adjust their quarrels.

The higher the place of a people's intelligence the greater its readiness to devise rules for the conduct of its daily life. Nations are only now becoming sufficiently intelligent to come out of the darkness of anarchy into the light of law and order.

VOTERS ARE NOT DECEIVED

Governor Cox's charges that the Republican campaign managers planned to raise a fund of $15,000,000 to "buy the presidential election" are daily becoming more of a boomerang to Democratic hopes of success in November. Thoughtful voters were not deceived by the groundless accusations.

Republican party chiefs do not deny that plans were made for raising funds to carry on the campaign. Presidential campaigns were ever conducted with funds raised by popular subscription And there never was a period in the history of the United States when the cost of publicity was as great as today—public speakers' expenses, newspaper advertising, posters and the other methods used to present the cause of any party.

Even if it were possible for any political party to raise the sum of $15,000,000, the average expenditure for each state would be approximately $300,000, and this sum would be quickly spent if the usual advertising methods were followed. The truth is the Republican party will do well if its contributions reach one-third of the sum Governor Cox says the party is trying to raise—a fund which would not go far in meeting publicity costs at the present high rates for materials and labor entering into a campaign.

The "quotas" which Governor Cox says the Republicans had assessed, reached a total of about one-half of the sum alleged to be in process of raising, the figures being the governor's own. The Republican party was in debt at the close of the compaign four years ago, and it will be fortunate if the experience is not repeated this year.

HIGH PRICED GOODS

Up to recently it was common to advise people to buy the best qualities of goods, on the theory that they would wear enough longer to make up for additional cost. In normal times this may have been good judgment.

Many people have become convinced that nothing less than the very best quality is good enough. This policy has led producers to believe that the public would pay any old price and has resulted in a lot of profiteering.

It is usually possible to get substantial stuff without buying the highest priced goods. The tendency is strong for manufacturers to put on extra touches that make an article look a little higher class, but which do not add anything to wear, and to use these extras or frills as excuse for piling on high price.

As long as the public will buy high priced stuff freely, producers will keep turning it out, because it pays more money. The store windows will be full of that class of goods, and people will get the idea that other grades, which may give good wear for the money, are not satisfactory.

People might as well make up their minds to pay only moderate prices, and then the trade will conform to their demand.. If producers find there is but a small market for high priced stuff, they will figure on low margins and plain styles.

In times like these people should be willing to live and dress simply. Fine clothes and gaudy house furnishings simply squander the country's money and help tie up business.

The merchants of Monessen do not want their customers to buy needlessly expensive goods, and can always be depended upon to have plenty of plain and substantial stock for moderate prices.

The new fall prices seem to show evidence of having revised upwards.

Nobody has yet discovered something that is neither easily compressed or stepped on.

Jokes seem to be thick as flies when a street broom is in order.

Any number of flies are being brought into the United States by waterways on schooners.

Many a man says that he can't afford a husband a wife and husband can't afford the same time.

It takes a woman about ten years to be glad that she did not get the husband she wanted.

Pearl White is a Hit In Her First Special

Seldom does a photoplay so profoundly stir an audience as does "The White Moll" in which Pearl White appears as a Fox Star at the Olympic theatre today and tomorrow. It is Miss White's first appearance in a big special screen production, she having abandoned serials. She is seen in one of the most powerful stories ever shown on the silver sheet.

As interpreted by Miss White and a cast of notable strength, "The White Moll" carries a gripping appeal which holds the spectator spellbound. The picture is based on the famous story by Frank L. Packard, author of "The Miracle Man" and the adroitness with which the eremendous theme has been worked out in the scenario, written by Lloyd Sheldon, raises the picture to the level of a classic. 1t

Dog Owners Must Pay Licenses

Dog owners in Pennsylvania who violate the law by failing to take out a license for their dogs, and who escape prosecution during any one year, may be held for the license fee even though action is not instituted until the following year. The Pennsylvania department of agriculture is assisting the local county officials and constables in enforcing the law and while hundreds of prosecutions have been instituted in various sections, and while this work will be vigorously prosecuted throughout the year, yet there will be some dog owners who will escape detection.

These dog owners, however, will be liable to prosecution next year for failure to comply with the law this year. The Lebanon county authorities are now planning to collect the delinquent dog tax for 1919 and similar action will be taken up in other counties as rapidly as they are cleaned up for the current year.

Thus far in 1920 there have been 1,421 prosecutions entered in the state for violations of the dog law and each case has been successfully terminated. This is as against 10 prosecutions in 1919.

The activity of the enforcement officials which have centered on Washington county for the past several weeks, will be extended to Greene, Indiana, Westmoreland and Armstrong counties within the next week or two and a large number of arrests will be ordered in each of these counties.

An impression has gotten thru out the state that the offenders are largely confined to the rural sections of the state. This is incorrect as offenders have been found in cities and towns as well as in the county sections.

Houses not wired for electric service are not in the "all modern improvements" class.

Tenants taboo them as being inconvenient, uneconomical and unfashionable.

Landlords find them hard to rent, difficult to sell and expensive to insure.

Your friends and neighbors who own, buy, sell or rent houses, will substantiate these facts. Eliminate these drawbacks by having your houses wired.

continuity and never with any appreciable gains. It is now highly important that we take a well-defined plan of defense.

Now the quickest and best way of getting rid of the rats is not to devise ways and means to kill them, but to devise ways and means to keep them from eating, and the only way to do this is to change the present municipal service in such a manner that the garbage cans which are set out on the sidewalk by each family be collected and emptied at night instead of in the morning.

"Resting, as these garbage cans do, on the sidewalk all night, the rats have both the advantage of time, of darkness, and of the absence of people on the street, in which to eat their fill therefrom. If these garbage cans were collected and emptied at night instead, Paris would be free of rats within a week. They would die of starvation."

While Professor Bordas' Foehsonian offensive against the rats is under consideration the city council has decided to grant the public health department sufficient funds in which to undertake, should it be so decided, some more expensive manner of turning the trick.

Chronic Daylight Makes Finns Nation of Natural Arhletes

By L. R. Blanchard

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Sept 14--If the United States congress regards sports at all seriously, it will harken to a recommendation from Finland.

Finland has natural daylight saving. As a result the Finns with an almost insignificant population to draw from, romped away with second honors in the track and field events of the Olympics this year.

E. W. Broman, a Chicago Finn, on learning that his countrymen has taken 105 points in the Olympics against the 92 of the English and 75 of the French said:

"Findland is a land of athletes Boys and girls from infancy delight in outdoor sports because of the long days. It is daylight from 1 in the morning until 11 at night

"When I was a boy I never got to bed until 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning I was having a good time playing outdoors

"Most of the best athletes come from the cities because the universities are located there Students are obliged to take part in daily calesthenics, a relic of the days when Finland was Swedish The Finns have hundreds of athletic clubs and enjoy wonderful health and vitality because of the long hours of exercise in sunlight hours

Strategist Would Starve P-aris' Rodents

By HENRY WOOD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Sept 1--Poor Paris is particularly unlucky this summer.

She had counted absolutely on a yet table invasion of rich Americans who would spend enough of their good hard dollars in France to cause the rate of exchange to readjust

As a matter of fact owing to the lack of steamships, only a very limited number of Americans have come

And now in place of this very desirable invasion Paris finds herself invaded with rats. Health specialists who have been peeping into the subject place the number of rats now in Paris at about 8,000,000.

As a matter of fact the rats have all been here for some time past, but no one thought about them until a few cases of pest were discovered about the city. While it was quickly established that these cases were purely sporadic and were easily isolated, it was pointed out that if Paris' 8,000,000 rats should suddenly take it into their heads to see what they could do in the matter of propagating the pest or some other disease, they might make considerable headway before the Paris health authorities, in a counter offensive, could pull off another battle of the Marne.

As a result of the necessity of putting the rats out of business, Paris is developing a number of health strategists whose plans are as hardy and as promising as were those of Joffre himself at the Marne

One of these strategists, Professor Bordas says it is as easy as pie. He says he can starve out the whole 8,000,000 in a week. His campaign of action is as follows:

"Up to the present time we have never engaged a serious battle in France against the rats. From time to time we have had an occasional offensive but never with any spirit of

"I Want Something Good"

That about sums up the average man's clothing preferences. He has no preconceived notions as to style, and, in many cases, as to price.

He may have special leaning towards one color or another—and he may have his particular objection to one or two colors. But, outside of that, he wants "something good."

So, when we sell a man—we make it a point, without telling us, of giving him clothes that insure satisfaction. Just the kind of cut and drape to suit his peculiar "style of beauty."

SELF-RADIENT HOME DOCTORS

is what women are called who all over this broad land make their annual collections of roots and herbs, and rely upon recipes which our pioneer mothers found dependable for different family ailments. In one of these recipes, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compand had its origin and so successfully has it proven that there is hardly a city, town or hamlet in America where some women who has been restored to health by its use does not reside. 1t
